

Agency Reporting Expectations 2025

The United Way of Pettis County requires funded partners to submit a mid-year report and a final report. Funding will be distributed quarterly. Funding for the 2nd quarter and 4th quarter is distributed upon receipt of the reports. Reports will be submitted electronically from the UWPC funded partner portal.

Mid-year reports will include the following information:

1. Project Name
2. Number of Volunteers to support the project/program from Jan-June
3. Number of Volunteer Hours to support the project/program for Jan-June
4. Number of Full Time Employees to support project/program for Jan-June
5. List of collaborators on the project/program for Jan-June
6. Number of people served (impacted) for Jan-June
7. Breakdown of the people served (impacted) by race, age, and any other demographic data collected for Jan-June.
8. Year to date expenditures according to budget submitted with application

End of the year report will include the following information:

1. Project Name
2. Number of Volunteers to support the project/program for 2025
